

The NH Farm to Restaurant Dining Guide and Farm to Restaurant Product Resource Guide

New Hampshire Farm to Restaurant Connection

The New Hampshire Farm to Restaurant Connection (NHFRC) links New Hampshire farm and food producers with New Hampshire restaurants. NHFRC encourages and facilitates the purchase and use of local farm and food products for restaurant meal preparation. Everyone benefits when fresh, local foods are part of restaurant fare.

The NHFRC is a collaboration of many organizations and individuals including:

NH Dept. of Agriculture, Markets & Food www.agriculture.nh.gov

NH Made (formerly NH Stories, Inc.)
www.nhmade.com

NH Lodging & Restaurant Association
www.nhlra.com

Atlantic Culinary Academy
www.atlanticculinary.com

NH Farmers' Market Association
www.nhfma.org

North Country Resource Conservation & Development Council www.nhrcd.org

Slow Food USA, NH Convivia
www.slowfoodusa.org

In today's global marketplace, we are more aware and concerned than ever about the sources of our food supply. NHFRC creates a local food network. The resulting partnerships between New Hampshire eating establishments and New Hampshire farmers and food producers have the potential to provide a multitude of benefits including:

- Indigenous food supply with unparalleled quality and taste experience
- Strengthening of our agricultural communities and sustaining our state's rural landscape
- Education about locally grown food
- Consumption of more nutritious & healthy foods
- Promotion of New Hampshire restaurant businesses

NHFRC coordinates Growers Dinners, special events hosted by New Hampshire restaurants where the majority of the meal is crafted from New Hampshire produced goods. Visit the website for a calendar of upcoming dinner events:

www.nhfarmtorestaurant.com

Using this Guide. . . .

Diners:

Use the Dining Guide to find great New Hampshire restaurants that use local goods in meals offered in their dining rooms. Availability of many menu items is seasonal. If you're unsure what's local, be sure to ask. If your favorite restaurant isn't part of the NHFRC, send them our way for more information: info@nhfarmtorestaurant.com

Chefs:

Use the Product Resource Guide to source product for use in your restaurant or other eating establishment. These farms and food businesses have a wonderful and diverse supply of goods available for sale.

Be sure to visit the Farmers' Market portion of the Guide. There are 53 markets in communities across the state, where you can purchase the freshest products and meet many farmers who sell to local restaurants.
